Grace Kennedy

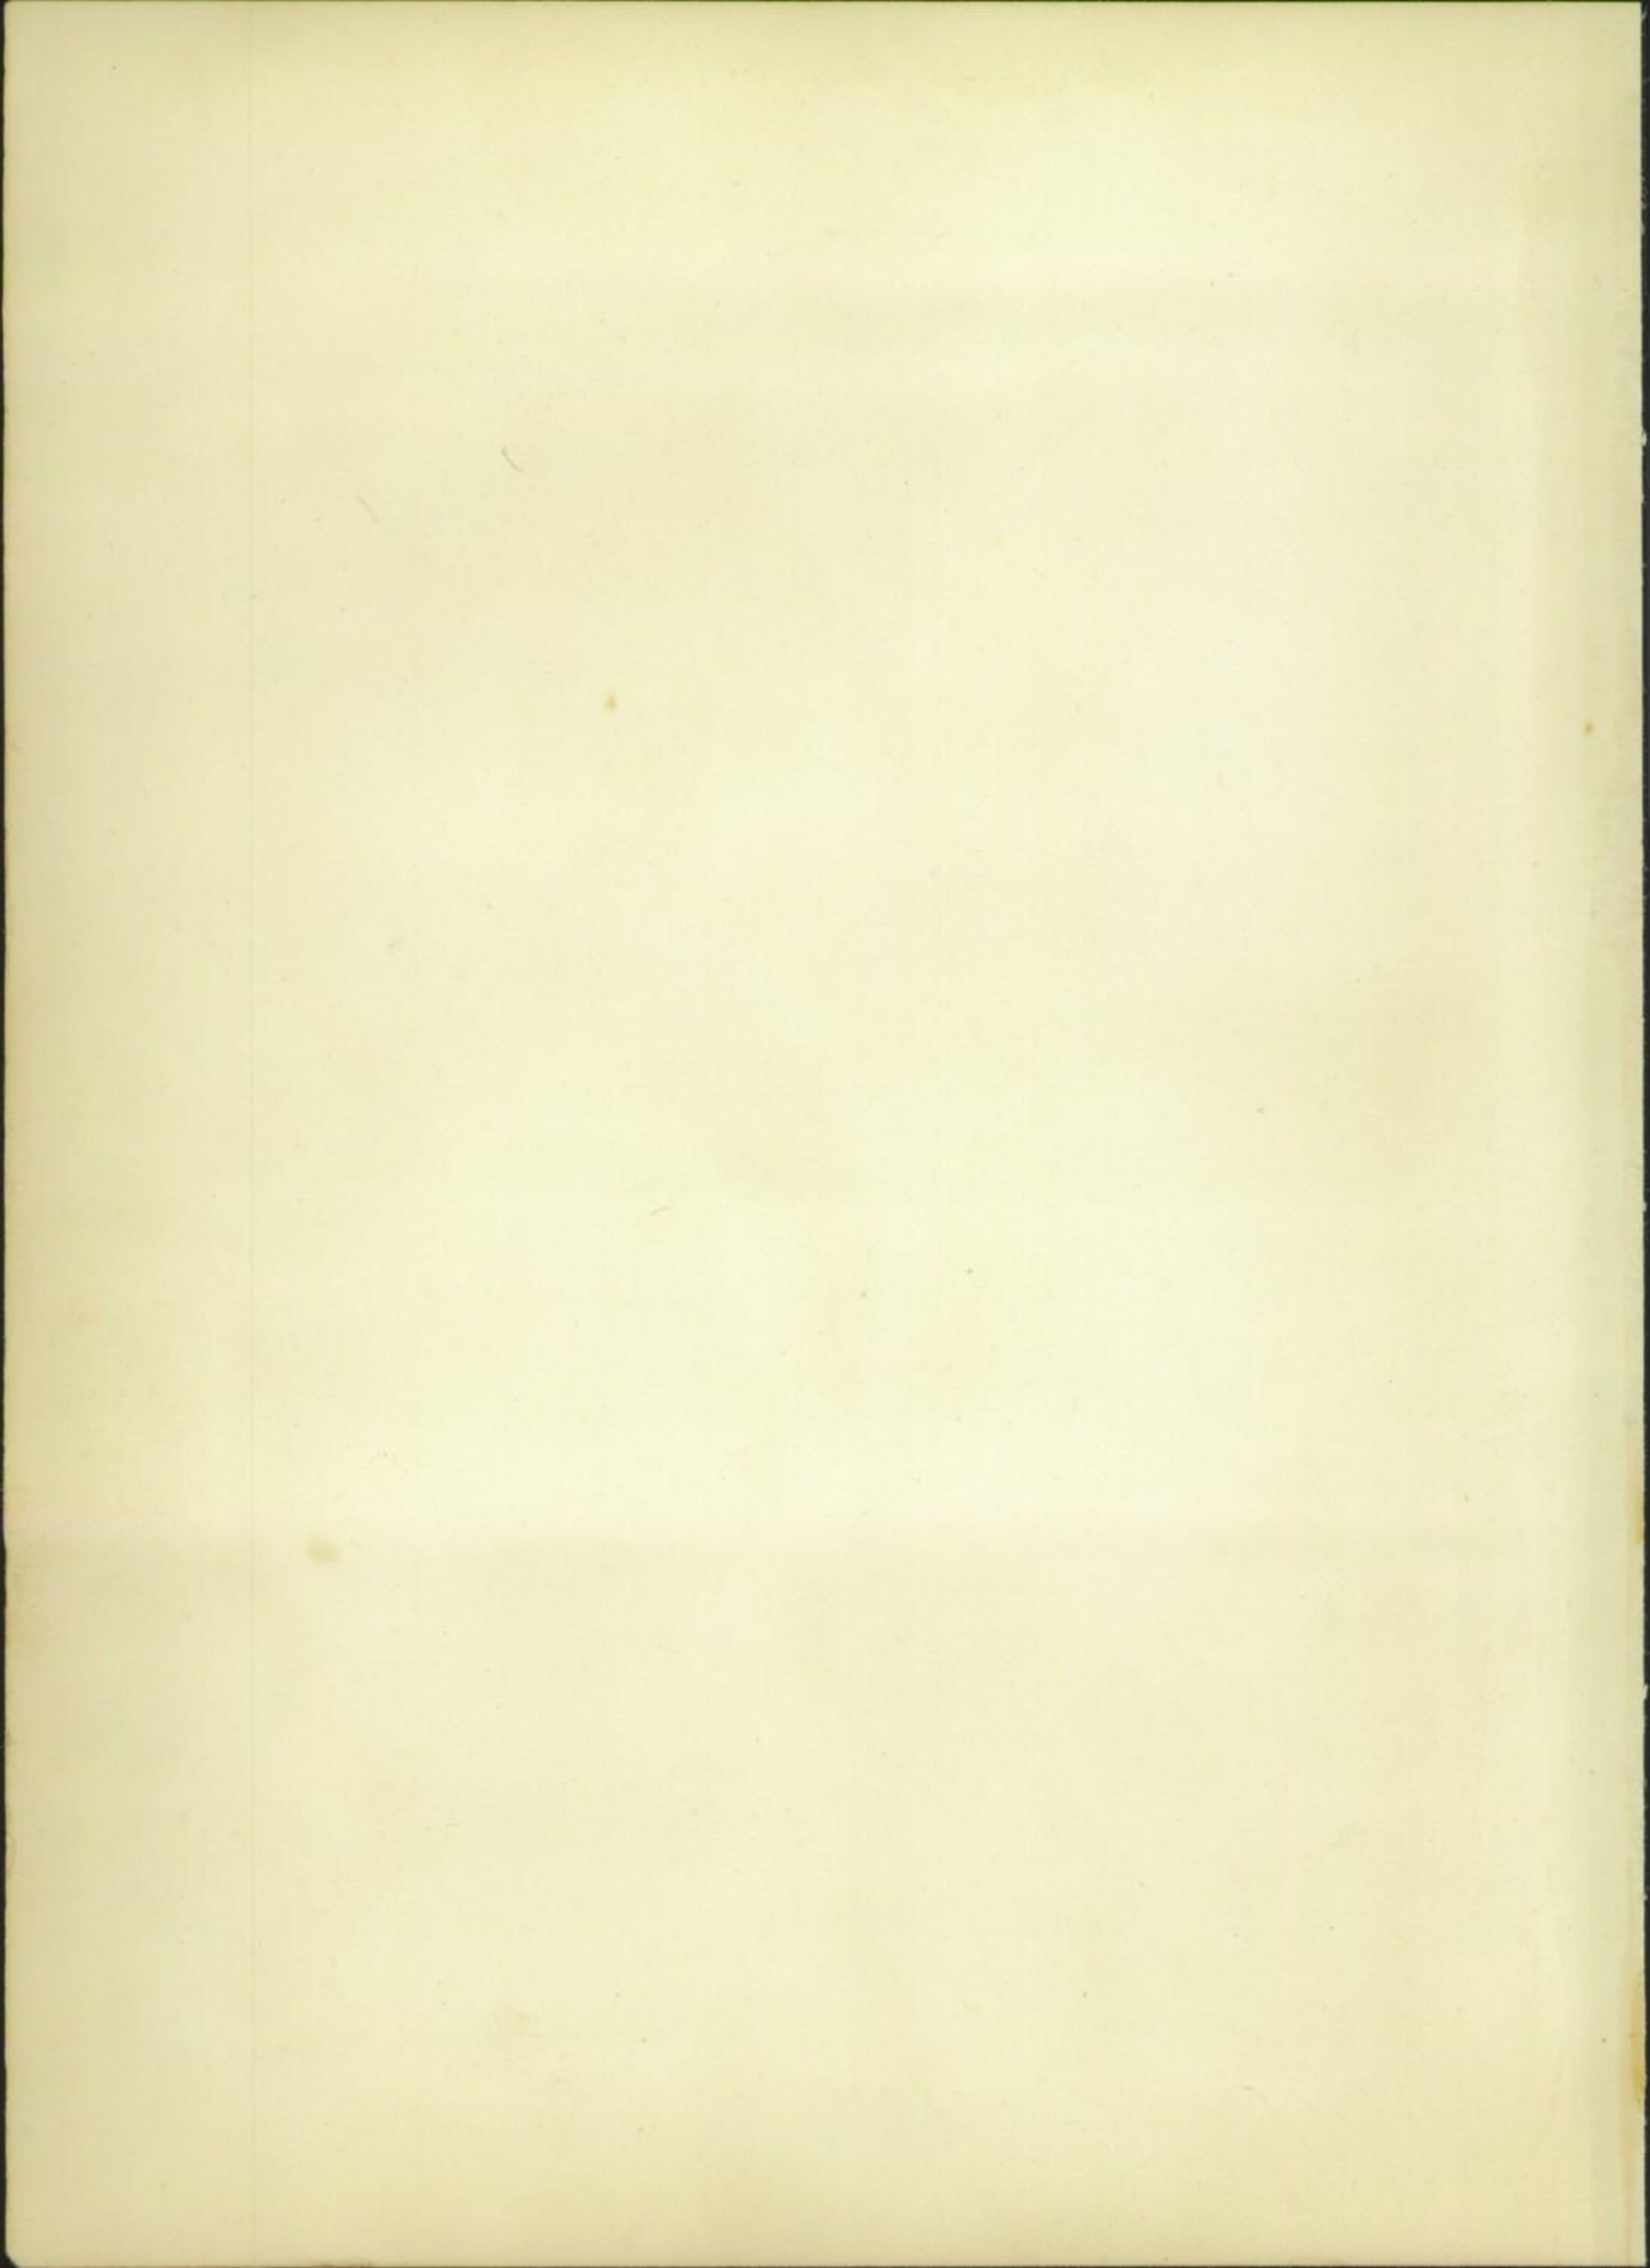

Dear Grace,
I think you are a fine girl. You have certainly been a hard worker, and I admire
you very much.

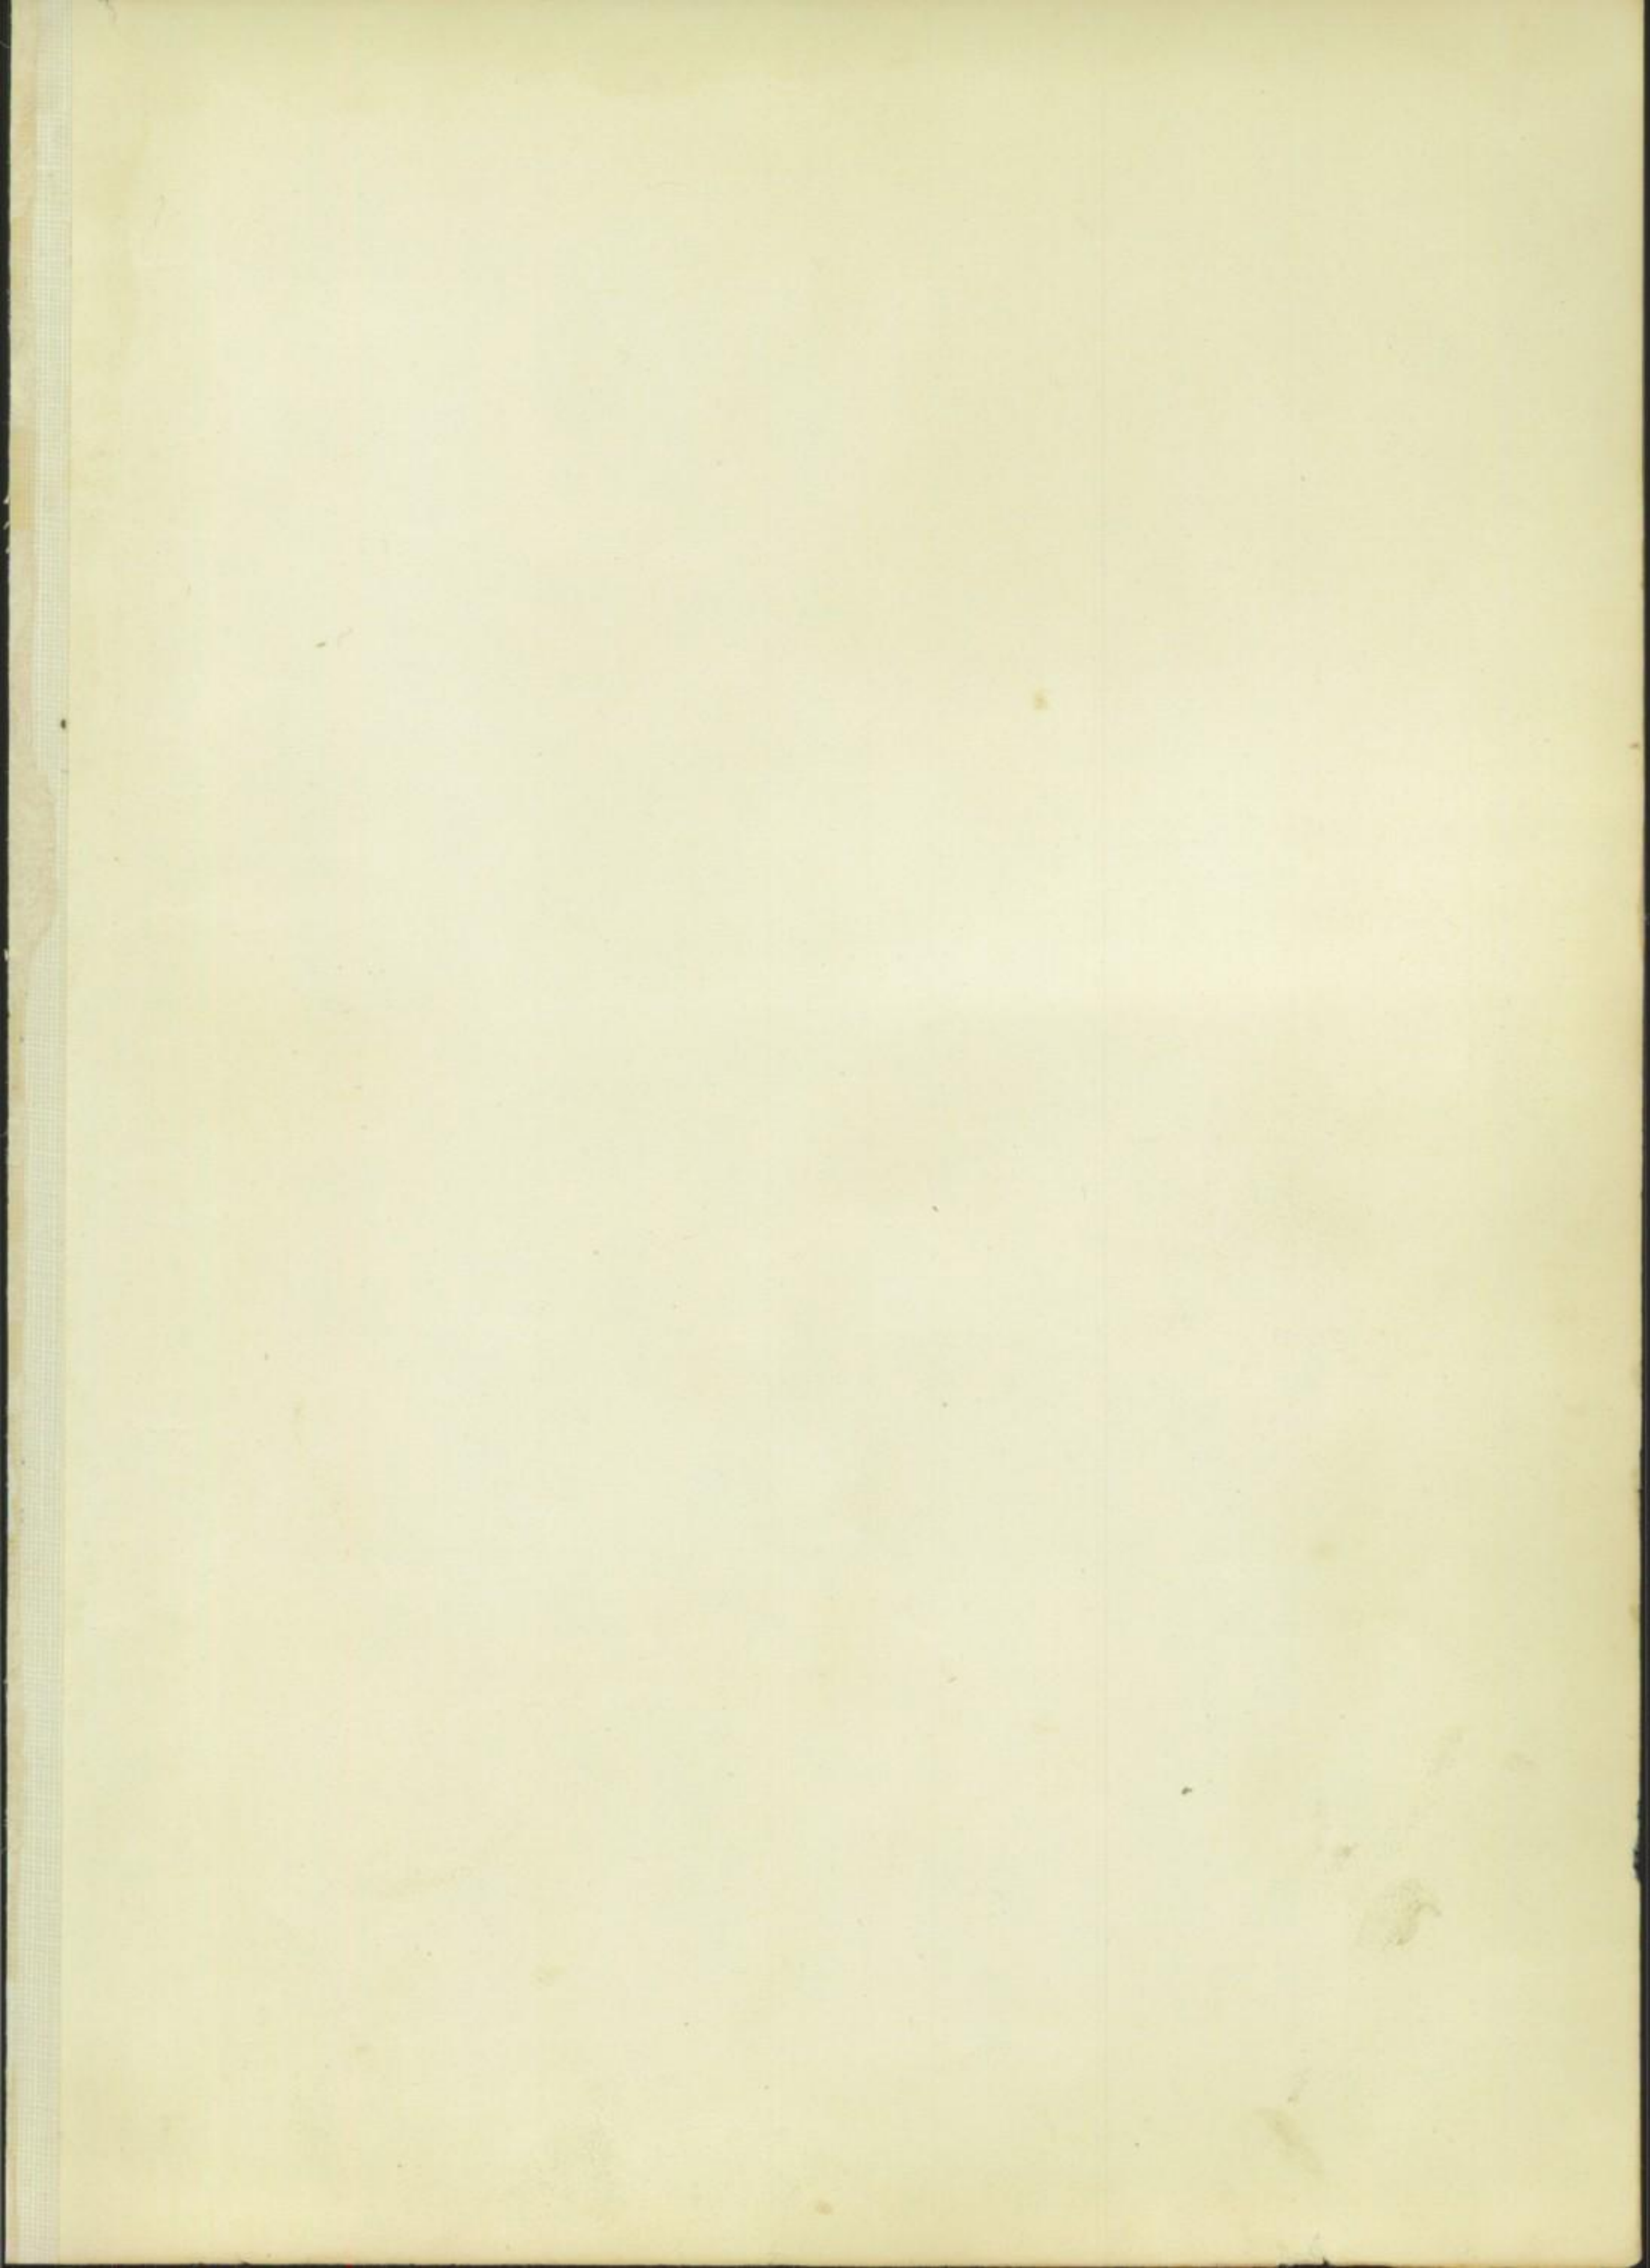

Sincerely,
Ore Lee Cannon

Class History

Many, many years ago, fifty little boys and girls entered the first grade in schools all over the state. Twenty-one members of the senior class of 1950 started their education at Bixby. They are: Don Allen, Ronald Brown, Leroy Defries, Don Henderson, Donald Fryar, Kenneth Hunter, Merle Johnson, Floyd Martin, Gene Martin, May Gordon, Dorothy McIntosh, Fay Gordon, Awilda Neas, Martha Plummer, Betty Raper, Charles Moore, Gano Willsey, Martha Sue Burris, Phillip Winsett, Mary Ruth Gibson, and Joan Simmons.

When the next year of school rolled around we felt as though we really belonged here. This year we were joined by Ronald Wade and Bill Rickner.

Geraldine Carney joined our class in the third grade.

In the fourth grade we found two new faces in our class. We were very happy to have Nathalie Morgan and Joann Holton.

When the classmates gathered at the beginning of their fifth year of school, no new faces appeared.

At the beginning of the sixth grade, our last year in grade school, we welcomed Carrol Tennison and Betty Compton.

Junior High at last! We had worked six long years for this. This year we had four new students who were Don Guinn, Mary Haikey, Vivian Jones, and Betty Smith. Joan Simmons re-entered after a long absence.

Homer Lovelace and Joan Farrar enrolled at Bixby in the eighth grade.

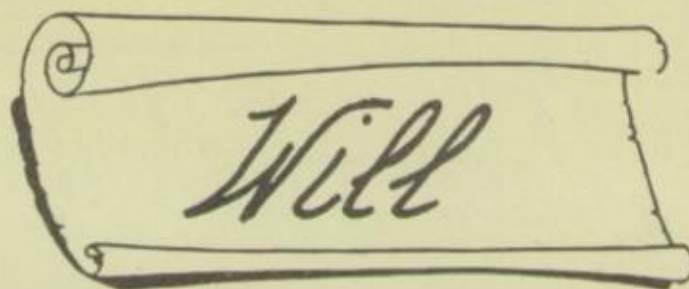

In the ninth grade we welcomed Howard Smith, Margie S. Byrum, Irene Turner and Doris Chancey. Gene Martin re-entered our class.

We were now sophomores and in high school. Grace Kannady joined our class this year.

During our junior year we were having more fun than ever before. Lyla Blagg entered at the beginning of the second semester.

At last we were seniors. Four new students, Dan Ballenger, Ray Webb, Elwa Fisk, and Arcell Jones joined us. Lyndall Bullock, Juanda Farmer, Jean Jenson, Yvonne Bullock, and Dorothy Creekmore also joined our class as three year seniors.

Although graduating from high school is something that we have looked forward to for twelve years, we are now a little sad at the thoughts of leaving. We will try to work hard in the future and make Bixby High School proud of the senior class of 1950.

To Will from Martha Sue will go her height
 To reach it he'll have to stretch all his might.
 To Steve Nance will go from Merle
 His ability to cut a curl.
 Rickner's laziness will go from Bill
 To his old pal Wil-BUR.
 A position on the paper staff will go to Jean Ethridge from Grace
 She'll have to work to keep that place.
 Gano wills his football suit to Jack
 Jenkins can use it, he's a good half back.
 From Margie will go to Alice Joyce
 Her ability to catch a husband of her choice.
 Betty Compton wills her dozen roses
 To Joyce Nichols who can smell them with all her noses.
 Mary Ruth wills her way with red haired boys
 To Dorla Bolton, who won't settle for dyed McCoys.
 Doris Chancey wills her title of football queen
 To her Leonard relatives, Honey or Jean.
 Joan Simmons wills her ability in football
 To Betty Parker, who will never fall.
 Yvonne wills her twirling suit and hat
 To Betsy Sue who has always wanted that.
 Dorothy Creekmore wills her ability to catch a college man
 To Sandra Stephens and we hope that she can.
 Nathalie Morgan, who can talk off your head
 Wills to Billie Pruitt her ability to get things said.
 What Philip Winsett wills, he wishes to tell
 It's his nickname of Bulldog to Paul Bell.
 From Don Allen will go his position on paper staff
 To Alfred Self, Oh what a laugh!
 Ronald Brown wills his locker
 To Mary Boatman, we hope it doesn't shock 'er.
 Lyla Blagg wills her come hither eyes
 To June Baker, and do they bring on the boys' sighs.
 Bill Jones wills his curly locks
 To Ray Marshall, and also his loud socks.
 From Awilda Neas will go to Gerry Rowe
 Her future as an undertaker, she's feelin' mighty low.
 Vivian Jones in despair
 To Fonda Lowe wills her short hair.

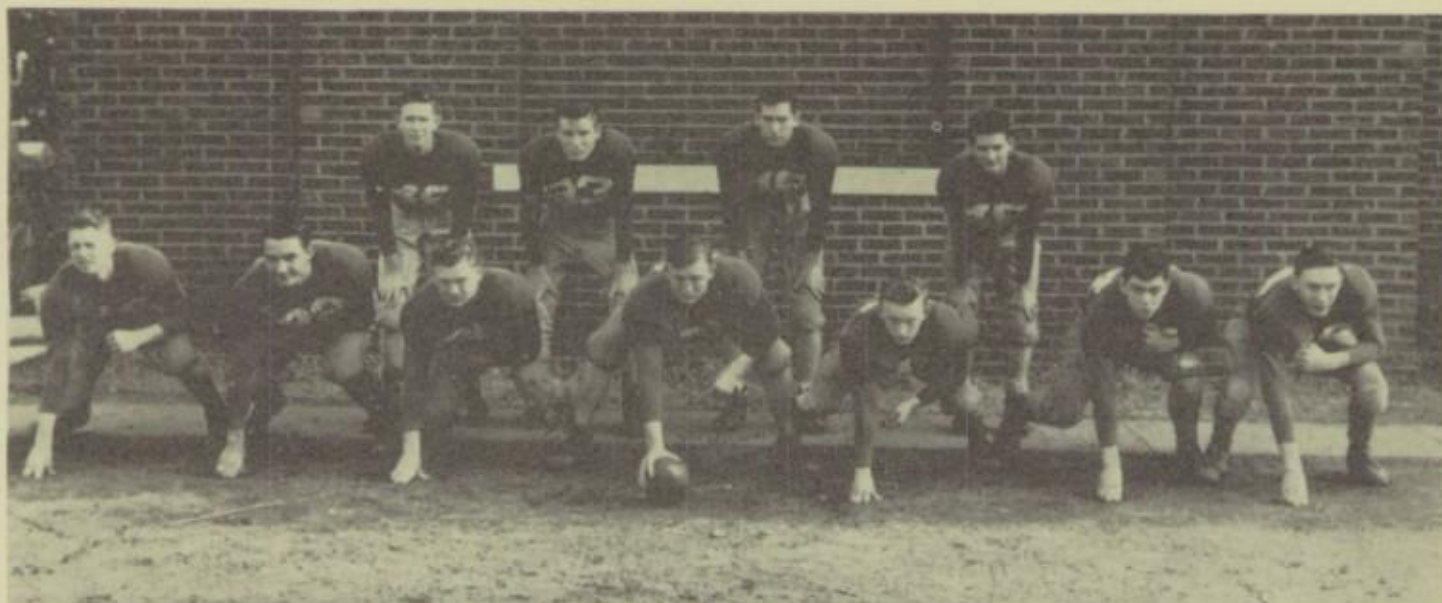

Kenneth Hunter to avoid a big fuss
To I. J. Kilburn wills his position on the school bus.
From Faye Gorden to Norma Milsap
Will go her temper and ability to slap.
From Carroll Tennison to Warren Kelly will go his smokes
We hope he treats it as one big joke.
His ability to get along with the teachers from Don Henderson
Will go to quiet Jerry Washington.
His belt to Charles Graham will go from Danny
For some day he may expose his er-er-ah knees.
Charles Moore wills his office chair
To the Salvation Army, who'll give it good care.
Howard Smith wills his basket ball agility
To Red Driscoll who has plenty of ability.
To the poor house Gene Martin leaves his desk in English
He's used it so much it's rickety and jinglish.
Dorothy McIntosh wills her jokes and pranks
To Jackie James; we hope they liven up next years cranks.
Her three green sweaters will go from Betty Smith
To Audrey who has the beauty to wear it with.
Homer leaves his ability in Chemistry class
To Arkie because we're afraid he'll never be able to pass.
Ronald Wade would like to will to Grady Cousins his little green car
But without it he could not go far.
Geraldine Carney leaves her ability to sing
To Norma Kizer who'll make the halls ring.
Mary Jane Haikey will leave her pep
To Ferrel Davis who is always hep.
The lively expression of Joan Farrar
We leave to Carlene, it'll carry her far.
Her love of athletics Joann Holton
Will leave to that Junior Dorothy Bolton.
His football ability is willed by Don Guinn
With it the team is sure to win.
His fightin' spirit is left by LeRoy DeFries
To Billy Davis; it's useful in a tight squeeze.
Floyd Martin wills the yearbook work
To Helen Chancey, who'll not shirk.
To Ray Martin from Red Fryar will go his job as president
And we know he'll accept it without hesitant.
This is a fact and not a rumor
To Doris Lambly, Arcell Jones leaves his sense of humor.
Her helpfulness Irene Turner will will
To Betty Wilson who will fill the bill.
Elwa Fisk wills her chair in life adjustment
To Betty Tennison and Helen York to them she'll trust it.
Betty Raper wills her ability to sew
To her fellow librarian, Carol Rowe.
To Junior Beede, Clyde Cantner leaves his ability to get out of school
Isn't that enough to make any one just drool?
To Burldine Potts, Jean Jenson wills her desposition dandy
It'll make this girl sweeter than candy.
May Gorden wills her typing speed
To Rosie Lee and Winnie and it'll fill the need.
Ralph Brown wills his pleasant ways
To Slob Daniels because kindness pays.
Lyndall Bullock wills his Tony
To any twin who has a phony.
Ray Webb wills his ability to rib
To the Freshmen, just out of the crib.
To Joan Hull and Juanda Farmer leaves her ability to spell
That it is good, no one needs to tell.
Boo leaves her position as Spartan Spirit editor
To anyone who will not discredit her.
Happy memories are left by the whole Senior Class:
To the School from which we shall pass.

HEAT ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH

Yes, a campfire has its advantages, but imagine a campfire trying to do the thousand and one jobs natural gas performs in the home, glass plant or refinery. Your demands for a dependable supply of natural gas, ready for instant use, has outmoded the campfire. And we here, at Oklahoma Natural, 1900 strong are working night and day to assure the homes and industries of Oklahoma a dependable supply of clean natural gas -- the wonder fuel.
